

In a study, AMR Research, an industry analyst firm, concluded that in 2006, companies will spend over $27 billion on compliance-related activities in North America. This spending is expected to increase during the next 12 to 24 months, fueled by new regulations and a lack of efficiency in current compliance programs.

The topics range from introductory to advanced and courses can be attended Live or accessed OnDemand right from the convenience of your desk.

Compliance Alerts

Compliance Alerts are email updates of latest relevant news, announcement, and events based on members' choice of compliance query, issue, or topic. The service enables ComplianceOnline members to monitor developing compliance-related news stories and keeping current on industry regulations.

Compliance Community

ComplianceOnline is the largest online community for compliance and quality professionals. Our members are associated with compliance in many different ways - from those new to the compliance field to seasoned compliance professionals, from executives of companies operating in highly regulated environments to auditors and inspectors of regulatory bodies. ComplianceOnline provides its member community daily news, interviews with key industry figures, discussion and Q&A forums, and Blogs and Podcasts, focused on current and relevant compliance topics.

ComplianceOnline is the platform where burning issues, new ideas, and best practices are first discussed, reported, and promoted - much before traditional media covers them. This makes our community an integral force contributing to the compliance domain they work in.

Highlights

ComplianceOnline is a subsidiary of MetricStream, Inc. and has leading investors including Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers (KPCB).

Through its partnership with NASDAQ, ComplianceOnline offers specialized compliance training, alerts, and content to NASDAQ-listed companies to enable them to better manage their compliance processes.

ComplianceOnline is ANSI's partner for distributing ISO standards in digital format in the United States.

Compliance Content Search

Being a knowledge-driven field, easy access to information such as best practices, articles, white papers, and regulatory documents is key to successfully implement and manage compliance programs.

ComplianceOnline provides specialized search capability that aggregates content from rich sources of compliance and quality content and gives direct access to relevant information. As compliance information and data sources are highly fragmented, ComplianceOnline provides a meta-search and presents the results in a manner that is simple to use and easy to consume.

Compliance Store

ComplianceOnline Store is a marketplace for a variety of compliance related products - from tools, templates, and books to published industry standards and training kits. Specializing in digital products, members can get instant access to products in the form of digital files written and published by industry experts and standards publishers. ComplianceOnline has one of the largest repositories of products for compliance and quality.
